Burton Farmers' Club.

The November session of the Burton Farmers' Club met Thursday, Nov. 4, with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Love and family. Owing to the extremely busy time of the year only about half of the members were present.

President George Fauth called the club to order and a song was sung by all followed by devotions conducted by the chaplain, W. J. Brookline. Two delegates, Mr. and Mrs. George Fauth, were elected to attend the State Association of Farmers' Clubs in Lansing the second week in December.

At this time the election of officers for the ensuing year was held, with the following result: Pres., Mrs. E. B. Putnam; vice pres., Mrs. W. G. Brookline; sec-treas., Mrs. Albert Schultz; director, F. W. Love; reporter, Mrs. Clayton E. Potter. Several important topics of the day were taken up and discussed.

Edmund Vincent gave a very animated and interesting account of what he heard in Lansing on Tuesday, Nov. 23, "Make Michigan Dry Day."

The club adjourned to meet Thursday, Dec. 24, with Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hammond.

Two Hundred and Fifty Stories.

And every story a good one. They are entertaining, but that is not all you can say about them. You know there is hardly a periodical published that is not full of time-wasting stories, but not a single story in the Youth's Companion is a time waster. Take the stories of C. A. Stephens. It would be hard to pick out one from which you cannot learn something useful and yet entertaining.

Some of the Companion stories refresh your knowledge of geography; some tell you the mysteries of chemistry, and some reveal the secrets of forestry and of general farming. They cover a wide range. They are chosen with an eye to the possible things of every member of a Companion family—stories of vigorous action and stirring adventure for boys, stories of college life and domestic vicissitudes for girls, stories that range all the way from sheer drollery to seriousness for men and women. There are no stories quite like those in the Companion.

If you are not familiar with the Companion as it is today, let us send you sample copies and the Forecast for 1916.

New subscribers who send $2.00 for 1916 will receive free a copy of The Companion Home Calendar for 1916, in addition to all the remaining 1915 issues from the time the subscription is received.

"By Their Fruits."

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—Administration officials are alarmed at the possibility of a further loss in revenue. Some months ago certain trust companies brought suit to recover amounts paid by them under the 'war tax' law. Their example was followed by others, until at the present time practically every dollar paid by the trust companies under the 'war tax' law is involved in litigation.

The first of these cases is set for trial before December 1. It is apparent that the administration is by no means confident of the integrity of the law Congress enacted, for additional counsel has been employed to aid government attorneys in defending the suits. It is said that unusually large retainers have been paid on both sides for legal advice.

The litigation is particularly vexatious to the government because Congress laid the foundation for it by a stupid blunder. The tax involved is levied under section 3 of the 'war tax' law referring to banks and bankers. At the time it was passed federal courts had already declared that a statute identical in terms, so far as trust companies were concerned, was in conflict with the present law, was insufficient to make trust companies liable for the tax imposed.

It is said that if Congress had exercised ordinary caution and drafted the 'war tax' law so that it should not conflict with a precedent already established by federal courts, the litigation could have been avoided. By carelessly neglecting this elementary principle, Congress virtually gave the trust companies a mortgage on all the revenue they have paid, which they may foreclose by judicial procedure.

A decision adverse to the government would be unusually embarrassing at this time. In the first place, it would mean a further shrinkage in revenues directly due to Democratic carelessness. The treasury deficit long ago assumed ugly proportions, and additional leakages would be damaging, both financially and politically.

Furthermore, it is proposed to immediately re-enact the 'war tax' law, which automatically expires December 31, 1915. This places the administration on the two horns of a dilemma. If the paragraph by which trust companies are taxed is amended, it is a confession of error. But if it is re-enacted without amendment, and the courts later decide against the validity of the law, a large sum in revenues will be lost.

"By their fruits ye shall know them." The administration has proposed a program of legislation for national defense that calls for the highest degree of accuracy and efficiency in law making, and a fiscal policy that will finance it. The middle over the trust company tax is an apt illustration of complete Democratic failure on both counts.

Frank B. Frasier of Venice township and Miss Abbie Campaign of Marion, were united in marriage Nov. 1, by Rev. B. G. Mattson at the Congregational parsonage in Owosso.

PROBE TAR AND FEATHERING

Iosco Trio Held in Trouble Growing Out of Finances.

East Tawas, Mich., Nov. 10.—This village is stirred over an alleged tar and feather party.

According to the sheriff, Ben Charters and his housekeeper, Mrs. George Parker, while at work on the former's farm, were attacked by two brothers named Anderson and George Parker, husband of the housekeeper. The sheriff says he has a hat which was dipped in tar and a pair of feathers and tar as evidence of what followed. Both the victims are very ill but in no danger of death. Finances are said to have caused the trouble.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Governor Ferris has issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation:

The people of the United States are grateful to the Infinite Father for their capacity and disposition to appreciate the bounties of nature. Through this appreciation, man cheerfully applies his labor to the earth in order that her bounties may serve as a means for realizing the essential joys of life. Abundant harvests are simply a necessary means to an end. The measuring unit of life is not to be found in bushels of grain, or potatoes, or fruits, or coal, or copper, or silver, or gold, or houses, or lands, but in the laughter of children around the hearthstone, in the love and loyalty of the home. "Home is the nation's safety." In the year nineteen hundred fifteen, we are grateful for the benediction that rests upon the American home. In the great commonwealth of Michigan we are, in common with all other states, the recipients of the richest blessings. It is eminently fitting that we set apart November twenty-fifth as a special day on which we may pray for "Peace on earth, good will to men."

Therefore, I, Woodbridge N. Ferris, governor of the state of Michigan, do hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-fifth of November, as the day for all the people of this commonwealth to celebrate in thanksgiving and prayer.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the state this sixth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifteen and of the commonwealth the seventy-ninth.

WOODBRIDGE N. FERRIS,
Governor.

From Mrs. Hornung, Buffalo, N. Y.

BUFFALO, N. Y.—"I am writing to let you know how much your medicine has done for me. I failed terribly during the last winter and summer and every one remarked about my appearance. I suffered from a female trouble and always had pains in my back, no appetite and at times was very weak."

"I was visiting at a friend's house one day and she thought I needed Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and have gained eight pounds, have a good appetite and am feeling better every day. Everybody is asking me what I am doing and I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. ## Made Me Well and Strong.

MACEDON, N. Y.—"I was all run down and very thin in flesh, nervous, no appetite, could not sleep and was weak, and felt badly all the time. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me well and strong, and I am recommending it to my friends."—Mrs. FRED CHACE, R. No. 2, Macedon, N. Y.
